Rule #55 Default Judgment

Comes now Plaintiff, (Pro Se litigant) Walker-Bey humbly asks this honorable court to consider this motion for Default Judgment.

Defendant A. Moore while employed at the St. Louis County Justice Center did operate in his official and personal capacity in a culpable mind state did in fact violate this Petitioner's Constitution Rights. Furthermore the defendant has not made any attempt to comply with any of the court's orders. Defendant A. Moore has not made an attempt to defend plea, and has failed to appear before this honorable court. And has shown lack of participation in this case... This Petitioner humbly asks for an order entry of default and default Judgment.

Supporting Documents are;
The original complaint 42 U.S.C. § 1983
Writ. Summary Judgment.

I, Carl W. Walker-Bey, petitioner humbly asks this honorable court to grant an entry of default and default judgment and all monetary currency ask for.

Thank you..

Submitted Respectfully,
Carl W. Walker-Bey
